Two New Castle Residents Die In Auto Crash

Fatally Hurt In Collision At Road Intersection Near Poland Early Today

TWO OTHERS HURT RESULT OF CRASH

Two New Castle residents were instantly killed at 1:40 a. m. today, when the automobile of Bernard J. Schooley, aged 31 years, of 407 Blaine street, collided with an automobile driven by William Haines, aged 52 years, of 3549 Beldon street, Youngstown, O., at the intersection of Ohio Routes 630 and 90, four miles south of Poland, O.

Mr. Schooley was killed, along with Mrs. Lenore "Sally" Brick, aged 27 years, wife of Eugene Brick, of 819 Eina street, who was a passenger in the Schooley car. Both suffered multiple fractures of the skull. Haines is in the South Side hospital at Youngstown, seriously injured, with a possible fracture of the skull. His wife, Mrs. Madge Haines, escaped with lesser injuries.

Crash Into Wall

According to Ohio State Police at Salem, O., who investigated the crash, the Schooley car was traveling at a high rate of speed, and after colliding with the Haines car, crashed into a retaining wall. All in the cars were taken to the South Side hospital, Youngstown, where it was determined that Mr. Schooley and Mrs. Brick had been instantly killed. Their bodies were removed to the Hofmeister Funeral Home, of 401 Hillman Way, Youngstown, and later, Mr. Schooley's body was brought to the Zehner Funeral Home here to be prepared for burial. It will be taken to the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Schooley, of 710 Blaine street.

Born In Sharon
Bernard James Schooley was born in Sharon, Pa., January 23, 1917, the son of Charles B. and Mary Fee Schooley, who survive, together with his wife, Martha May Schaffer Schooley, two children, Constantine Ann and Linda May; and (Continued on Page Two)

Pa Newc Observes

At the New Castle hospital during the month of April, Sir Stork made 51 visits and on one trip delivered twin girls. There were 28 male infants born, however, and 22 female infants. In March there were only 41 births recorded, there being a slight increase this past month.

Girls again slightly outnumbered the boys born at the Jameson Memorial hospital during the month of April, the statistics reveal. There were 122 babies in all born during the month, of which 62 were girls and 60 were boys. There were two sets of twins included in the number. In April, 1947, there were 126 babies born at the hospital, which was an all-time record for the month.

Despite the scarcity of houses, one local meter man told Pa Newc that Friday was an unusually busy day for him as he cut service in some homes and opened it at others where local residents had just moved. The reason for the rush the day before May day was due to the fact that the metermen did not work on Saturday.

Three years ago tomorrow, May 2, Berlin fell to the allies while on the same day the Nazis surrendered during World War I.

The plot of grass at the beginning of Croton avenue extension on South Mill street presents an especially pleasing sight at the present time. The grass blankets the entire plot and has been neatly trimmed by the city forestry department.

MOSCOW, May 1.—Soviet Russia paraded her armed might today in a May Day demonstration against "imperialism."

A new type of jet aircraft, said officially to be "flying with the speed of sound," featured the parade, which was reviewed by Premier Stalin and top Soviet officials.

Stalin Has Charged
Many persons who had not seen Stalin for some time were shocked by his appearance. His hair and moustache have turned silvery white.

Cheering crowds heard minister of the armed forces Marshal Nikolai Bulganin attack "imperialists who are conducting unbridled war propaganda, knocking together military blocs, and increasing armaments."

Renew Efforts To Avert Strike Of Rail Workers

CHICAGO, May 1.—(INS)—Government mediators renew their efforts today to avert a threatened nationwide rail strike.

Chairman Frank Douglass of the national mediation board called a second meeting in Chicago with representatives of the three operating brotherhoods after a day-long session with a committee of rail executives.

Douglass also asked the carrier conferees to stand by for a possible meeting after he and board member Francis A. O'Neill had conferred with union leaders.

Seek Settlement
The federal official said at the close of yesterday's conference that both sides have "a sincere disposition" to try to find a settlement before the projected May 11 walkout.

"We think the atmosphere is such that progress can be made," However, Douglass declined to reveal what progress had been made in either of the first two sessions.

He said he believed the dispute over wages and rules "will be settled in direct negotiations" if an agreement is reached before the strike date.

Report Palestine Is Invaded By 9,000 Arab Troops

British Troops Kill 70 Jewish Fighters In Battle Of Jaffa

JERUSALEM IS REPORTED QUIET

By BENN FELLER
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

JERUSALEM, May 1.—British troops killed 70 Jewish fighters in the fierce three-cornered battle of Jaffa today and the Hagana high command alleged that 9,000 Arabs have invaded Palestine.

The Hagana announcement, issued in Tel Aviv and broadcast, said that the invading Arabs were composed of Syrians and Lebanese.

It declared they came down from the north, crossing the Palestine frontier and launching a "large-scale attack" on Jewish northern settlements.

Members Of Underground
An official army announcement on the fatalities in Jaffa said that all the Jews who were killed were members of the underground Ir-gun Zvai Leumi.

Ir-gun leadership denied British charges that its fighters had broken the truce at Jaffa.

Its headquarters accused the British of "deliberate murder" in an effort to drive a wedge between Ir-gun and the official Jewish army Hagana, which on several recent occasions have joined hands in fighting the Arabs.

Total Ir-gun casualties in the British attack, including dead and wounded, were said to exceed 100.

Jerusalem Is Quiet
Jerusalem was quiet today following capitulation of 100 Arabs who had been holding out in the ancient Greek Saint Simeon monastery.

The British army withdrew its tanks and armored cars after sending a squadron of spitfires over the Katamon area as proof of its intention to take stern action against unprovoked attacks.

The Arab forces in the north were reportedly equipped with tanks and heavy artillery.

The Syrian and Lebanese troops were said to have crossed Palestine's northern frontier after midnight.

They were reported to have de- (Continued on Page Two)

Race Against Time For Peace In Holy Land

LAKE SUCCESS, N. Y., May 1.—(INS)—The United Nations undertook a desperate new effort today in a race against time and war to re-establish peace in the Holy Land.

With anxiety over threatened Arab invasion of the Holy Land written on almost every face at Lake Success, the delegates convened for a special Saturday session in the hope of hearing encouraging reports from the consular truce group in Jerusalem.

Appears Doomed
The United States plan for a temporary trusteeship over all of Jerusalem seems foredoomed to failure.

But hopes are banked on further messages awaited by the security council in particular on the tense situation in Palestine from the consuls of the United States, France and Belgium.

A ray of hope was held out for a possible general truce—barring any organized invasion by the Arab league lands—in the wake of a consular communication to the security council that the Jewish agency is ready to accept a conditional truce.

Three Conditions
This message stated that the agency will talk truce on three conditions, all of them open to concession. They are:

1. Free immigration during the truce.
2. Removal of infiltrated Arab forces from Palestine.
3. Free access to Jerusalem over all roads.

The message said that the Arabs higher committee indicated that they would negotiate for a truce in Palestine only if the whole of the Arab league is drawn in.

Driver Fortunate In East Brook Accident

Frank Popovich, driver with Hable's automotive parts and supply concern of the city, was injured when his vehicle, a converted bus, loaded with tools and accessories, left the highway and upset by a passenger car when the accident occurred. The auto in front pulled off the road and Popovich, swinging out to pass, felt his steering apparatus give way. Unable to control the bus, he veered across the highway, sheared off two porch posts on a house owned and occupied by Neal Edie and family, and came to rest on its side alongside the home.

The driver was thrown against the door of the vehicle, stunned, but otherwise unharmed. Persons hurrying to the scene had to extricate Popovich from the cab by smashing the glass and forcing entrance.

Western Hemisphere Nations Sign Treaties

BOGOTA, Colombia, May 1.—(INS)—New, more powerful union of 21 republics of the western hemisphere emerged today as the prime result of the ninth inter-American conference.

Representatives of the 21 nations of North, Central and South America yesterday signed two treaties and a series of resolutions drafted during the 30-day parley. A third treaty will be signed tomorrow.

Significantly, the signing ceremonies took place in what was once the home of Simon Bolivar, South America's great liberator of the 19th Century.

Two major treaties form the basis of the new union. One creates a charter for a strong western hemisphere union, to be known as the organization of the American States. The organization will exist as a regional grouping under the United Nations.

The second treaty, known as the pact of Bogota, contains detailed methods for the peaceful arbitration of disputes between the member nations.

Considerable importance it attached to the anti-Communist resolution, which was adopted unanimously by the delegations.

Grenade Attack Made Upon Greek Justice Minister

Minister Of Justice Christos Ladas Badly Wounded In Assassination

NEW SECURITY ORDERS ISSUED (BULLETIN)

ATHENS, May 1.—(INS)—The Greek government clamped down martial law on Athens and its port city of Piraeus today after a May Day attempt to assassinate Minister of Justice Christos Ladas.

The martial law decision followed an emergency conference between Premier Themistocles Sophoulis and cabinet officers.

By KINGSBURY SMITH
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

ATHENS, May 1.—The Greek government swiftly imposed new security measures on Athens today after a May Day assassination attempt against Minister of Justice Christos Ladas.

Ladas, gravely wounded by a reportedly self-proclaimed Communist, is not expected to live.

Fear that the attempt was part of a plot by Communists to create a May Day reign of terror led to the imposition of special precautions to guard other cabinet officers.

Officials speculated that the attempt might have been connected with the attempt of guerrillas to send saboteurs into the capital.

Assailant Is Held
A young man who threw three grenades at the minister entered his car in front of his residence was held by police. He was said to have been wounded himself in the explosions.

Police said that he is "undoubtedly a Communist."

Ladas himself, just before losing consciousness, was reported to have declared, "it's the party"—meaning the Communist party.

A member of Ladas police bodyguard was killed by the grenade explosions, and another member was wounded.

The would-be assassin was identified by police as Efstratios Moutzouranis, 23 year old laborer.

May Be Terror Campaign
Police said that they questioned him at the hospital when he recovered consciousness. They asserted that when they asked him if he acted on orders from the Communist party he nodded in the affirmative.

It is believed in Athens that the Communists may now be embarking on a campaign of political assassination and underground terror.

This would serve as an "answer" to the military defeats their guerrillas are now suffering at the hands of the Greek army in the mountains of central Greece.

The selection of Ladas as the first target for such a reign of terror is understandable. He has run the ministry of justice with a firm hand and has shown marked severity in dealing with Communists.

Oregon Primary Campaign Started By Governor Dewey

FORTLAND, Ore., May 1.—(INS)—Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York arrives in Oregon today by air for what may be the most important campaign of his political career.

Contesting with Harold E. Stassen for the 12 Republican delegates to be elected in the Oregon primary, May 21, Dewey has arranged for a strenuous drive across the state, with 35 speeches scheduled for this week alone.

The Dewey-Stassen battle for delegates is the fourth of the year. Dewey whipped Stassen in New Hampshire, winning six of that state's eight delegates; ran far behind Stassen and General Douglas MacArthur in Wisconsin, and ran second to Stassen in Nebraska's seven-candidate field.

This time, however, the chips are really down and Dewey is convinced that he has the fight of his life at hand if he hopes to remain strongly in the race for the 1948 presidential nomination.

played in two columns and to have begun assaults against the Jewish settlements of Dan Dafne, Kfar-Hum and Lahavoth Habashan.

Arab artillery fire was reported being heard in Tiberias, 20 miles south of the Lebanese border.

Truce Broken
The British communiqué concerning Jaffa said that Arabs broke the truce agreement which had halted the Irgunist attack on the city. The Jews returned the Arab fire.

The clash was the first large-scale British-Jewish engagement since partition was voted by the United Nations last November.

It came as Irgunists were reported to have decided to extend the battle for Jerusalem despite another British Ultimatum. Irgunists attacked the Arab suburb of Wadi Joz, northeast of the Holy City.

Reuters reported that the British said they sent an armored car into action against Irgunists in Jaffa when mortar shells fell in the British zone.

Shelled By Mortars
(The agency reported that other Irgunists attacking the Jaffa magistrates court were shelled by British mortars, two-pounder artillery, and bazookas.)

It said that the Jews had occupied a house within thirty yards of the British flank.

A British sergeant was reported killed, and five soldiers wounded in fighting in the port city yesterday.

Fighting in Jerusalem was still continuing.

Now solidly entrenched in the exclusive Arab Katamon quarter, seized yesterday after heavy fighting, the Jews ignored a British warning that a continuation of their offensive will bring RAF and British troops into action.

An order of the day calling on the Soviet people "not to forget the intrigues of international reaction directed against our country's new democracy," keynoted the demonstration.

"The supporters of peace should remember that peace-loving states can only ensure peace if they carry on an active struggle for peace in the future."

Students Complete Semi-Starvation Diet Test Of Week
PHILADELPHIA, May 1.—(INS)—Thirteen high school students will dine in style on steak tonight—and the meal probably will be one of the most memorable ones in their lives.

The students volunteered to go on a week-long semi-starvation diet last Saturday to draw attention to the United Nations appeal for children, which opens today. They have been limited to 1,200 calories a day—in types of food sent from this country to Europe's hungry. All the food was dried, powdered or canned.

The five teachers who have been supervising the youngsters said the pupils have become sleepy and irritable—but they are looking forward to the steak dinner tonight—their reward.

For breakfast yesterday they had two giddle cakes with a teaspoonful of oleomargarine (instead of lard, which most of them had rejected in earlier meals), and a tablespoon of powdered milk in water.

For lunch they had one cup of macaroni, a cup of string beans and three plums each. And at dinner they had three ounces of salmon, a cup of tomatoes, one medium-sized boiled potatoe and one slice of black bread.

Possibility of an early restoration of the monarchy in Spain was clouded again by the new arrest of Lt. Gen. Alfredo Duany Kindelan, official representative of the pretender Don Juan.

This redoubtable Cuban-born monarchist was sentenced to two months detention in Guadalupe near Iruin in northern Spain.

His offense was criticizing Generalissimo Franco and his regime in a "private" speech to a group of monarchist followers.

Indicates Two Things

The fresh arrest indicated two things.

First, the "private" meeting was not nearly as secret as Gen. Kindelan fondly imagined, for obviously someone reported the affair to the police or the Falangists.

Second, Franco may be receding from his friendly attitude toward the monarchists now that he has been excluded from the Marshall plan and has little immediate to gain by courting re-establishment of the kingdom that was relinquished under pressure by the late Alfonso XIII.

A few weeks ago, when Spanish Marshall plan participation seemed highly probable, Franco made much of his so-called regency council and much was said about his apparent readiness to abandon at least some portion of his totalitarian rule.

Don Juan, of course, always has insisted that he never will share the exaltation throne with another man.

Compromise Loomed

But some sort of compromise did seem possible, with Franco receding from the constant spotlight, confining himself to military matters and delivering speeches on the indestructibility of Spain as a bulwark of Catholic conservatism.

Any such course of action would require full cooperation of the monarchists in Spain.

Thus by arresting Kindelan, Franco seems to be risking a break with Don Juan's followers although it is a generally accepted tenet in Spain that any criticism of the present regime is tantamount to treason in greater or lesser form.

Arrests are nothing new to Kindelan. He has had a spectacular career since he came to Spain from Cuba many years ago. He

WHEN PARENTS AND CHILDREN CO-OPERATE

When a husband helps his wife with her household chores and the growing children also share in these duties, there can be a precious companionship.

The wife of a school teacher and mother of five children, ranging from 9 years to 8 months, writes: "Some while ago you published a letter from a young mother who had to smile at those women who wanted help from their husbands after they had worked all day and thought those wives who did so were plain lazy. And she told of the many duties she had in order to show she had more strength than most of us."

Then the writer tells of her work and her family. "I do my own laundry, dry cleaning and housecleaning, including calceining, papering and painting. I help to take care of the garden while my husband works in summer. I harvest and can the vegetables. I do all my own sewing, including my boys' shirts, pants and my own dresses. I never put anything away not mended."

Time To Read

"I find time to read a story to the children, sometimes two, every night. I give piano lessons to two oldest and also to two other girls. I am secretary of the Sunday school, a chorister of the Woman's Relief society and I still find time for a few hobbies. My husband and I keep a scrapbook of interesting articles and poetry. I love to sing and spend a few moments each day practicing."

"In other words, I live, I love, I laugh, I work and I enjoy my husband and family. Of course, we have to wear last winter's coats and dresses this year and next, curl my own hair and darn the socks twice—but we get along. We sometimes look a little shabby but no more than other people around us. We budget our money to the penny and stick to it. The children, young as they are, help plan it and where the money comes from and where it goes. They know why they can't have an extra nickel for candy this week and why we can't afford a show the next."

Learning To Work

"The children are all learning to work. The girls help me with the dishes and they get on one side of the bed while I am on the other and we have a bed-making lesson nearly every day. The boy, who is nine, gets in the wood and coal and makes the fires and does many other chores. Even my three-year-old can dress himself, tie his own shoes, brush his own teeth and hair and wash himself before meals."

"However, unlike this other young mother, who thought she had so much to do, I do ask my husband for help. He does most of the garden work and fixes things about the place. If he comes home tired after a hard day's work and sees me dragging around and trying to finish up my day's struggles he helps most of the time with no asking. Most of a time we have stayed up till a time we have painting, etc. I'm extra busy he tucks the children into bed and reads to them. When I am not feeling so well he gets up in the night with the children when they need attention."

"So you see why I don't have to smile to women who want their husbands' help. Maybe he has had a hard day's work but so has she. And they need to keep on until they are through with the day's duties and then sit down and enjoy life together."

Washington Calling

SOME DOUBTS ON GERMAN POLICY

WASHINGTON, May 1.—A new censorship was imposed the other day on news out of the American Zone of Occupation in Germany, and a protest was quickly forthcoming from American correspondents. While this may signify little, as American officials in Berlin insisted, it will serve nonetheless to stir new doubts as to what the policy of this government really means for Germany and the German people.

We read that the German board of directors of the Tri-Zonal bank of the German states have named as president and chairman of the board of two financiers who were among the most useful servants of the Nazis. Herman J. Abs and August Schnielwid put their brains and their skill at the service of the top Nazis, the former particularly in pillaging the occupied countries of their economic resources.

Will Be Puzzled

The average American will be puzzled by this turn of events. Where does responsibility lie? What did we fight a war for if it was only to restore such men to power?

Schniellwid was recently made liaison officer for the European recovery program and the bi-zonal economic administration. This could be a position of paramount influence in shaping the direction of the German economy.

It is perfectly true, of course, as American military men argue, that they must use Germans with appropriate brains and technical skills. The fact that a German is a good Social Democrat who has suffered for his belief in Democracy does not mean that he can be useful in helping to restore the German economy. Most of the Sound Suggestion For Nation

WASHINGTON, May 1.—AMONG the graver defects in our system is the apparent inability of the Federal Government to function competently in a crisis. This, of course, was proven in World War I, and even more convincingly in World War II. It is true we won both great struggles. And, after each we proudly flapped our wings, loudly crowing about the "superior job" we had done, though every informed man knew that the cost in American lives and American dollars had been far greater than it should have been.

ESPECIALLY was this so of the last war because in that, for indefensible reasons we rejected the hard-bought experience of the first and refused to profit by its demonstrated mistakes. Now, hardly three years since the shooting ended, in an effort to avert a third world war, the possibility of which is conceded by all, we are embarked upon a foreign policy involving sums of a magnitude and perils of a proportion greater than anyone ever dreamed of in a peace period. In conception as in cost, this policy is truly on a grand scale. It is not too much to say that if it succeeds we not only shall have preserved the peace of the world but saved European civilization from collapse and our own from a disastrous setback. If it fails, even though war does not ensue, the economic consequences would be pretty awful. Except actual war itself, in all our history we have never faced so great a crisis nor one imposing so heavy a strain upon our resources or evoking such risks.

CLEARLY, here is a situation calling for governmental competency of the highest possible degree. The urgency of managing our domestic affairs so as to stand strong and steady under the vast financial burdens of the European Recovery Program is too plain to debate. Obviously, this is a program requiring the putting of our fiscal house in the best of order—reduction of debt, enhancement of revenue, the elimination of waste, curtailment of government costs, an end to duplication and red tape, avoidance of unessential experiments and expansion. In brief, nothing should be left undone to buttress the soundness and strength of the whole Federal financial structure. That is just ordinary common sense.

BUT, with the great crisis on top of us, are we exercising ordinary common sense? Few will so contend. The fact is that instead of acting intelligently we are behaving like idiots. Instead of increasing our revenues so as to reduce the great debt which is a conceded menace to the national security, Congress deliberately and despite protest from the fiscal officials, has diminished national revenue—through tax reduction—more than five billion dollars. Instead of contracting governmental waste and paring governmental expenditures, save those for national defense and foreign policy, we are expanding and increasing at an astonishing rate. We are about to launch new and expensive experiments along medical, educational, housing and social lines, all of which add to the cost, accelerate inflation and ought not to be undertaken until the fiscal foundation has been laid up. Overlapping and waste among the Federal bureaus and boards have not been reduced but increased. Confusion and incompetency are close to an all-time high.

AT this moment, no one knows with even reasonable accuracy how much we will have to put out this year nor how much we will take in. What we do know is that at the rate we are going, deficit financing again threatens and debt reduction is a mirage. It is not surprising that those who know the facts are distressed and discouraged. With the national conventions and a political campaign ahead, there is a distrust and suspicion between Democratic President and Republican Congress of such character as to make real co-operation utterly impossible, though co-operation was never as acutely needed.

FROM men who truthfully can be described as disinterested there has come the suggestion that it would be greatly in the national interests if the President could be induced now to create an advisory council made up of private citizens in whose wisdom and patriotism the country as a whole has confidence. For such a group (though there are other qualified men) the names of Mr. Herbert Hoover and Mr. B. M. Baruch inevitably occur. Those who support this idea point out that the main complaint against Mr. Truman concerns the inadequacy of his advisers; the fact that except for two men in his Cabinet, there is no one of real stature and experience among those who surround and see him.

IN this crisis, if there were a board, composed of private citizens such as Mr. Hoover and Mr. Baruch devoid of political ambition and of known ability, integrity, patriotism and experience, with whom Mr. Truman regularly consulted and upon whose advice he could be dependent, the weight of the nation's opinion on our national policies an enabling us to measure up to the great requirements of world leadership. More surely than in any other way bipartisan co-operation on vital issues could be achieved. It would instill confidence and increase competency—both badly needed in this Administration. It seems a step to which neither Democrats nor Republicans could object. Certainly, popular approval would be great.

Bible Thought

The light of the body is the eye; if therefore thine eye be single, thy whole body shall be full of light. But if thine eye be evil, thy whole body shall be full of darkness. If therefore the light that is in thee be darkness, how great is that darkness!

—Matthew 6:22, 23.

They Say

WASHINGTON — Rep. Brown (R-O): "Both foreign and domestic affairs of the nation are in a mess. Under President Truman America is being seriously threatened with involvement in World War III."

YOKOHAMA, Japan.—Lt. Gen. Robert L. Eichelberger, U. S. eighth army commander: "Anyone molesting an American soldier during the May Day celebrations will be lucky to reach a court room for trial. We are prepared to handle any violence with more than sufficient force."

CHICAGO — Frank Douglass, chairman of the national railway mediation board: "The mediation board knows that the railroad unions would like to settle without a strike. We are prepared to stay as long as necessary—as long as there seems to be a chance to make a deal."

The World and the Mud Puddles

NO DICTATOR YET

Senator Vandenberg in his statement in response to Secretary Marshall's dictum that Congress must take "all of the Marshall Plan or nothing" declares that the estimate on the cost of this "Plan" by the President and the State Department is not necessarily sacrosanct, but that Congress would insist upon its right to determine how much or how little of the Marshall Plan would be adopted. Had the Marshall Plan been offered to Congress by a President with the same ideas as held by the late F. D. R. it can well be imagined what the executive would have thought of Congress. It just has not been done for the last thirteen years, with the exception of the Senate getting its back up on the proposition to increase the number of Justices of the Supreme Court—that being the only proposition suggested by the President that was turned down.

As a matter of fact, the Senate did follow almost verbatim the Marshall Plan, but have by their action reserved the right to change the appropriation from year to year.

An Able Leader

UNIFICATION OR DISUNITY?

As administration military leaders continue to testify before committees of Congress it becomes more difficult for the average citizen—and presumably Congress as well—to determine what ought to be done in the matter of national defense. Secretary Forrestal's most recent statement added to the general confusion.

Forrestal not only was arguing for a smaller appropriation than the department heads want—he calls this a compromise plan—but he flatly rejected the view of General Bradley, Chief of Staff, that war might come at an early date. If the men entrusted with the nation's defenses are thus in disagreement how can Congress be expected to reach a sound decision?

It may be true, as Secretary Forrestal hinted, that there are two ways of looking at the situation. One is the military view and this gives no consideration to the amount of money involved or to any factor except the ultimate in security. The other is the civilian's view and takes into account not only preparedness for war but also the impact of vast spending on the national economy.

But it does seem that good administration would have found a way to iron out these differences within the walls of the Department of Defense instead of exposing the country to a fruitless public debate. Unification of the armed forces was supposed to make for unity of judgment and action. Instead it seems to have created disunity.

OIL IS IMPERATIVE

Oil experts estimate the United States may expect to recover 50,000,000 barrels of petroleum, which seems like a tremendous amount, but actually is only enough for 25 years on the basis of present consumption. And consumption is likely to increase.

In addition, it will be costlier and more difficult to recover petroleum when the bottom of the 50,000,000 barrels is approached.

The remainder of the world is presumed to have 500,000,000 barrels of recoverable petroleum. The United States will lose standing as a world power when and if its oil resources begin fading out and other nations enter the flush period of production. National security would be weakened to the extent of this nation's weakness in oil supply compared to oil resources of other powers.

America has coal reserves of 3,200,000,000 tons—64 times as great as oil resources. Methods of converting coal into oil products are constantly being improved. The country also has vast shale oil deposits, and oil is being extracted from natural gas. The U. S. is far from impoverished in fuel resources, but the conversion of one form of fuel into another is now definitely indicated.

This should be supplemented by development of oil resources in South America and whatever supplies can be obtained from Asian areas. Oil is an imperative, but it may also become a problem.

UMT—FOR AND AGAINST

Howard C. Peterson, former assistant secretary of war, and Sen. Elbert D. Thomas, member and former chairman of the Senate Military Affairs Committee, outlined in the New York Times the arguments for and against universal military training.

Mr. Peterson, who favors UMT, says that our security depends upon our own strength and that of friendly nations; lack of such preparedness leads to appeasement and disaster. He says that our program for European relief may be made futile if it is not backed up by armed strength. He quotes the Compton Committee's decision that the atomic bomb has not changed the need for large forces, and believes that security is not achieved by possession of a large air force. The world's best chance for peace, claims Peterson, is American leadership, backed by determination and military force.

Senator Thomas avers that UMT would not give us the right kind of an army and would lead to a false sense of security. He believes in specialized training for individuals rather than mass training with lesser regard to the aptitudes of the men. He would train leaders who, in time of emergency, would act as nuclei for groups specializing in such things as civilian defense against atomic bombs.

There seems to be no good reason why these two theories could not be combined.

The reason dogs have so many friends is that they wag their tails instead of their tongues.

An architect, after studying the structure, says he doesn't understand what holds up the White House. The taxpayers.

The coal strike cost the nation 53,000,000 tons of coal. And just when it was getting up steam for all out industrial production.

Italy has been promised Trieste, membership in the United Nations and some African colonies. How are the Western allies on delivery?

Manufacturers who plan to put high-button shoes for women on the market are only awaiting word they will refuse to wear them to insure success for the venture.

Looking At Life

By Erich Brandeis

This is America! "Viola Bernabucci, of Bridgeport, Conn., entertained at a spaghetti dinner at her home. Music was provided. Dancing followed. "Among those present were: Irene Zaretsky, Christine Litzenberger, Betty Soli, Mary Brennan, Marilyn Muffley, Jeanette Kirkland and daughter, Linda, Audrey Ritter, Jeanne and Marie Bernabucci and the hostess." (Society item from the Post-Tribune, published in Bridgeport, Conn., U. S. A.)

A story in the papers tells that the servant shortage is getting worse and worse all the time. Most American women now do their own housework.

Here is an item from Locust Valley, Long Island:

"The Duke and Duchess of Windsor, who have been cruising on the yacht Sea Cloud in southern waters as guests of Mr. Joseph E. Davies, former U. S. Ambassador to Russia, and Mrs. Davies, took possession today of Severn, which will be their home for two months."

"They had luncheon and dinner and prepared to leave tomorrow for White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., where they will be guests for ten days or more of Robert R. Young, chairman of the board of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad."

"The twenty servants lined up inside the French provincial style chateau on Horse Hollow Road (Note to Composer: Please don't make this Horsefeathers Road), owned by Mrs. Brooks Howe, a friend of the Duke and Duchess, who is going abroad."

"As the Windsors arrived, the servants bowed and kissed and six photographers recorded their arrival. There was one policeman on hand but no crowd."

This, too, is America: A New Britain, Conn., manufacturer thought that Indians are not as rugged as they used to be.

He has just sold an electric blanket to a Sioux Indian in South Dakota.

And to add to today's collection to Americana:

Andre A. Gromyko, the man of twenty-three who was a guest of the United States who lives in a lovely place on Park Avenue and whose boy goes to an American school, continues to insult this country and to accuse us of lies, plots and schemes against his poor little country.

The Soviet Union and Czechoslovakia, he says, "do not need any self-styled arbiters and will not allow anyone to deal with the question of their obligation."

He announces that he will use "the double veto" to block any action in the Czechoslovakian case.

And so it goes. The Bernabuccis and Windsors, all playing their big little parts, some very useful, some very foolish, but all doing whatever they want to do, however they want to do it. And nobody cares. That is America.

From Me To You

By MESEALL

Greetings on this first day of May . . . seems like only yesterday that it was May 1st, 1947 . . . but of course on second look we know that it wasn't. This past year has made a lot of history . . . Yes, we today are making as important history as the men and women of the 1775 . . . even though we at present are not hiding behind the fence rows . . . we are attempting to keep in motion the freedoms that those people wished to have established.

But this year of 1948 finds May a busy little month . . . the promotion experts have designated a number of special events . . . let's look over the list and see what is on the docket: May 2-7, National Noise Abatement Week; May 2-9, National Family Week; May 2-8, National Music Week; May 3-9, Restaurant Week; May 3-9, Be Kind To Animals Week; May 14-23, National First Aid Week; May 17-22, National Cotton Week; May 23, "I Am An American" Day; May 24-31, Buddy Poppy Week . . . that leaves Memorial Day falling on Sunday but observed on Monday.

Today is known throughout the nation as Moving Day . . . the time when old leases are not renewed and new leases are made . . . Another big day falls in May . . . Mother's Day on the 9th this year. Then on the 15th comes the time when you can put away your winter hat and step out in that comfortable straw . . . stores will feature the 15th as Straw Hat Day.

The first week of May . . . according to the above dates . . . will be the most confusing . . . National Noise Abatement Week and National Music Week both are to be observed. How can you do away with noise when your neighbor is observing music week . . . as he voices down . . . the sax or tries out a few new disks you are keeping your hearing and then the first thing you know things begin to fly . . . yes, flying saucers as the little woman let's go from the kitchen . . . and this also being National Family Week . . . we ask you, is that any way to act . . . So it's happy 1st of May.

MAY

May is such a radiant miss. There is rapture in her kiss. She comes tripping into town With the new look in her gown. Not a sign of age or care Or of grief a single tract Stamped upon her youthful face; And the old earth glows to see One so beautiful as she. Turns, and as the memories stir, Winks a twinkling eye at her. Fancies that youth remains Underneath the aches and pains That to all the years bestow As they swiftly come and go. None too old and none too gay To enjoy a date with May.

MODULAR COORDINATION—A far-reaching plan for coordinating the dimensions of materials so that they can be combined into a finished structure with a minimum of waste from cutting and fitting, is the basic principle utilized.

MODULAR PARTITIONS are pre-built (not sectional) but full size, using standard size lumber on 16-inch centers. They are set into place without difficulties.

STANDARDIZING with Modular Coordination is the answer.

WE ARE READY! Production lines are set up. Plenty of good lumber is available now in our concentration yard.

THERE WILL BE ABOUT 1,000,000 HOMES BUILT in the United States this year. More than any other year in our history. DO YOU WANT ONE?

PRICES CAN'T COME DOWN MUCH! Insurance companies tell us that houses burn faster than we build them. Population is increasing, tradesmen are few, and supplies and materials can't possibly meet the demand in 10 years.

SEEING IS BELIEVING! Come out and investigate. See our material, our production line and our complete system in action. Visit with our mechanics and our salesmen. REAL OR 'COMPANY' MANNERS

Those of us who are really courteous and thoughtful are always so, whether we have an impressive audience or merely some members of our family before whom we don't mind "letting down our hair."

People with "company manners" keep them well pocketed at home; and when they go out, dust them off, polish them thoroughly and take them along for inspection. These are the spuriously polite who do not know that charity begins at home. Nor do they realize that we owe our most agreeable and charming selves, not to strangers, but to our own families.

Through some strange quirk of nature, we frequently show our most discourteous and disagreeable sides to those we love best. It is not difficult to be correct and polite when at a party and equally easy to drop the mask as we enter our own front door.

Remember—those who are habitually polite to one another at home are naturally so when they are away from it. It is, indeed, a compliment when someone says of your family: "Don't they get along well."

Men who are, by custom courteous to their wives at home never forget themselves before strangers. Women who do not nag their husbands at home, never embarrass them as well as all others within earshot, by doing so away from home.

Practice being courteous always. Everyone admires a man who rises when his wife (or any other woman) enters a room and draws out her chair at the table—stands aside to allow her to enter and leave a room—helps her enter and leave a vehicle—helps her on with her wraps, overshoes, etc. And he should show her every one of these courtesies when they are alone, as well as when in the presence of others.

INFORMAL BRIDE
"Please tell me the following details of my daughter's wedding: (1) She will marry in street-length clothes. Should she wear a corsage or carry an arm bouquet? (2) How many attendants are permissible? (3) Should they wear hats? (4) May she have ushers and how many?"

(5) She would like to have a reception at home but our home is too small for a great number of guests. Is it essential for us to invite to the reception all guests who attended the ceremony?"

Answer: (1) Shoulder corsages rather than arm bouquets are usually worn by informal brides and their attendants.

(2) Only one attendant is permissible for an informal bride. . . either a maid or matron-of-honor. Bridesmaids are allowed only in the case of a formal bride.

(3) Her attendant should wear a hat.

(4) She may have two ushers if they are necessary to assist the guests to their pews.

(5) She may invite a great number of guests to the ceremony and only a portion of that number to the reception if she so desires.

Question: Will you please tell me the correct way to introduce myself—Mrs. Jones or Mary Jones? Frequently I have occasion to introduce myself and I should like to know just how I should do so.

Answer: Introduce yourself formally, as Mrs. Jones so that all will know to address you as "Mrs." A single woman should introduce herself as "Mary Jones."

after which she will of course be called "Miss Jones."

Present your problems to Miss Markel who will promptly send personal replies to questions from readers inclosing stamped, addressed envelopes.

an able leader in the program of his fellow Republicans to co-operate sincerely with the executive in foreign affairs, as exemplified in his work in behalf of the United Nations and his aid to the State Department in numerous vital international conferences. But he probably takes the position that the Senate should have a voice of its own in a matter involving such huge expenditures and vast international consequences as the Marshall Plan.

The chief reason for our present complicated situation in world affairs is the abdication of its authority by Congress and its meek submission to the executive's secret deals with other nations' particularly with Soviet Russia. With the election of a Republican Congress the country has a right to expect that the legislative branch of the government would reassert its right to reassume its responsibilities. Senator Vandenberg's manifestation of independence in the matter of the Marshall Plan is a hopeful sign.

Metropolitan Opera Star Nino Martini, born in Italy, came to the United States in 1929 and did singing bits in Hollywood films. After a few months, when he won no recognition, he went back to Italy, studied English, took more voice lessons and tried again. This time he made his debut in radio, and was so successful that the Metropolitan Opera called him and he became the first singer to go from radio to grand opera.

Film Star Paulette Goddard was

Next in Hollywood, she became a member of the Hal Roach Stock company, but in 1936 she was chosen by Charlie Chaplin to play opposite him in the picture, "Modern Times." Since that time Paulette has starred in many important pictures.

"DRUNKOMETER" DATA
WASHINGTON, D. C.—(INS)—With six shots of whiskey inside him, the average American is definitely drunk and a menace at the wheel of an auto. This is the conclusion derived from use of "drunkometers" or similar devices for determining intoxication of persons involved in auto accidents. Six ounces of whiskey, or six bottles of beer, boosts the alcoholic content of the average person's blood to 15 per cent, the point beyond which there is no question about intoxication.

About 30 per cent of all the milk produced in the U. S. is used as a beverage and for cooking.

PETER W. HILLERS

Peter W. Hillers has pulled on his blue coat and adjusted his bright badge of authority longer than any officer on the New Castle police force. For all but one year and eleven months, when he left his position to return to work at the old tin mill, "Pete" has been guardian of the peace since December 14, 1908, a span of almost 40 years.

Officer Hillers is proud of the fact that during his long period of service he has only lost four days due to sickness. His only injury (and he has come in contact with dangerous killers, maniacs and just tough yeggs) is a stiff knee incurred while helping to bring in a prisoner.

"I guess that fellow thought we were taking him for a ride," said the big policeman, "anyway he put up quite a struggle to escape the touring car in which we were riding. He did manage to get out on the running board. I held tight to him and had to exert terrific pressure by bracing my head on the roof and jamming my feet tight on the floor. It was riding in this position that bruised my knee to the bone and it has bothered me ever since."

Has Vivid Recollections
"Pete" can reminisce for hours about his years on the force—tales that read like the pages from a detective magazine. He remembers when they used to hang prisoners in the court house, and he recalled being a witness of four of these executions.

He told of the bloody days in 1909 when he helped patrol the tin mill strike, and saw a fellow-policeman by his side stabbed and killed. He was called in on the 1919 labor strife also and stated emphatically that strike duty to him was the most distasteful of assignments. "No matter what you do, you offend someone," he said.

For a number of years Hillers was an operator of the force's pulmotor and was dispatched to the scene of drownings and to homes where persons were overcome by gas or carbon monoxide fumes. He related how once he worked over a gas victim for six hours in an apparently futile gesture to save a human life.

"Even the priest had been summoned and had administered the last rites," he said, "but the man finally came to. He afterwards came to my house and wanted to lavish presents on me."

Many times during the prohibition days Hillers and other officers were sent to raid "still" in the city. He remembered that the illegal production of liquor was abundant in some sections of the city and that like mushrooms, the "dens" sprang up again soon after a "cleanup".

Exciting Experience
One of the most exciting experiences in the veteran policeman's career was the time he helped remove a dog-catcher mad from having been bitten by a rabid dog. No one was particularly anxious to take the poor fellow into custody and it fell to Hillers to do the task. He held the unfortunate man in the ambulance while they sped to the county jail. Two hours later the dog-catcher died.

"He was like a mad animal," said Hillers, "snapping and barking just like a dog."

Peter Hillers was born on West Washington street, January 16, 1886, the son of Peter and Rosie Jennie Hillers. He was one of 10 children, five boys and four girls. His father made gas at the old plant on Shenango and South streets.

The future policeman attended Union township school, but quit at the age of 14 to go to work in the tin mill. He started as a "feed boy" on the shears and at the age of 16 had become a sheerman, the youngest persons to hold such a job at the plant.

He left the employ of the mill to join the police force after 11 years and then returned for a brief spell.

Hillers began his police work under the administration of Mayor Harry Lusk. Joseph Gilmore was chief of police.

"In those days there was a different form of city government," he recalled, "there were common and select councilmen from each ward. I started in at a salary of sixty dollars a month. Patrol drivers received fifty-five."

"Pete" has seen service under a variety of mayors and chiefs. The mayors, in addition to Lusk, have been Walter V. Tyler, Richard Newell, Samuel Barnes, W. T. Burns (acting), Fred L. Rentz, William Dunlap, William Gillespie,

Charles Mayne (two terms), Charles McGrath, and John Haven (two terms). It was under the administration of Richard Newell that Civil Service examinations became mandatory, and the officers of the force were afforded a hearing if about to be discharged.

Chief he has served under include Norris Mitchell, Charles Warnock, M. J. Young, J. Ed Elder, Henry Dysart, C. C. Horner, John Haven, Ralph Criswell, Willis McMullen and Robert Hanna.

Hillers was night lieutenant for six years, four under Mayor Gillespie and two under Mayor Mayne. He is now part of a cruiser car team.

He married the former Catherine M. Gilland in July 1915. They have no children. Officer Hillers is a life member of the Eagles and a charter member of the Fraternal Order of Police, Lodge 21. He attends the First Methodist church.

DELINQUENCY MURDERS
HONOLULU — (INS) — Police Chief William Hoopai has called upon the people of Hawaii to examine their social system and to weigh carefully their "moral assets" and their "shortcomings" in a drive to reduce juvenile delinquency. The police chief pointed out that two murders, by youths, have just shocked the community. Hoopai, in a public statement, said: "These youths have a background of juvenile offenses which differ only slightly from hundreds of other delinquents, who, but for the accident of time, place and circumstance, might have become the killers instead."

SALT LAKE CITY—(INS)—Angela L. Rossi, district governor of Optimists International, believes that "youth clubs are the means of developing clean-minded, healthy young men." TRUCK BENEFITS ARE SHARED WITH THE WHOLE WORLD

Motor trucks are truly international in their makeup. Men and women all over the world benefit because of the materials needed to make them.

Iron ore from Minnesota, coal and limestone from Pennsylvania, manganese from Sweden, oil from Texas, tin from the Malay peninsula, cotton from Georgia, rubber from Borneo, motors from Michigan, lumber from Oregon, leather from the western herds, glass from half a dozen states, plastics from still another half a dozen, the list goes on and on.

As completed units they continue to serve an international purpose. It is almost impossible to name anything you eat or wear or use, that hasn't been hauled by truck at some time in its journey from raw materials to finished product.

Imposing Many New Taxes In Pennsylvania

By JACK WARD

(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)
HARRISBURG, May 1.—Two hundred and thirty Pennsylvania municipalities either have adopted or are considering new local taxes authorized under broad legislation by the general assembly in 1947.

In a report on the new tax law, the Pennsylvania State Chamber of Commerce reported 75 additional municipalities have imposed or have begun consideration of imposition of new local levies in the three-week period ending April 1.

The legislature granted 3600 political subdivisions within the state the power to tax "any and all subjects of taxation" not already taxed by the commonwealth. "In its overall aspects, the present system bears no close resemblance to any existing elsewhere in the United States or to any widely-held theory of local finance," the report stated.

Wide Variety of Taxes
"Numerous local units in Pennsylvania currently are initiating a wide variety of new taxes under authority of the act. What the end result will be, few persons are willing to prophesy at this time. Whether the new law will prove beneficial or detrimental to the state as a whole remains to be seen."

Amusement taxes remain the most popular new source of revenue, according to the report, although income levies showed the most pronounced increase in the three-week period. Fifty-five subdivisions have adopted amusement taxes while 32 others are considering the levy, the chamber stated. Headed by Pittsburgh, the list includes 22 third-class cities, 49 boroughs, six first-class townships, eight school districts and the town of Bloomsburg.

Amusement taxes adopted, and proposed, principally cover movie theaters, sporting events, circuses and other types of commercial amusement. Rates generally are fixed at 10 per cent.

Income Taxes
The number of communities imposing income taxes was swelled by action of 13 boroughs and school districts in Mercer county which followed the lead of Sharon. Twenty communities, including Johnstown, Scranton, Monessen and Jeannette, now levy on incomes.

Taxes on natural products, principally coal, have been adopted or considered by more than 50 political subdivisions. Levies on coal mined ranged from one cent to 10 cents per ton. Certain communities have taxed the processing, marketing or loading of coal.

Pittsburgh and 10 third-class cities have adopted mercantile taxes for wholesalers and retailers, ranging from one-half mill to five mills. Seven boroughs and two school districts also adopted or were considering the levy.

At least 10 third-class cities have adopted per capita or poll taxes ranging from $2 to $5, the report stated, and 28 boroughs have adopted or were considering similar measures.

Miscellaneous taxes under the new legislation range from levies on pinball machines, juke boxes and mechanical amusement devices to proposed levies on billboards, scrap metal, trailers and gas pumps.

New Half Dollars Are Being Coined

New Franklin Coins Are Being Turned Out At U. S. Mint In Philadelphia

PHILADELPHIA, May 1.—(INS)—Benjamin Franklin, whose career was filled with historic firsts, today became the first American to have his likeness on the face of a half-dollar.

The new Benjamin Franklin half-dollars, the first such coin in 32 years, began rolling today from presses of the Philadelphia mint. The face of the coin bears a likeness of "Poor Richard" and the words: "Liberty" and "In God We Trust."

The reverse of the coin shows the Liberty Bell in bold relief. The coin was designed by the late John R. Sinnock, whose initials appear on its face.

Mint officials explained that the fact of the half-dollar cannot be changed often more than once in 25 years.

A change was due in 1941, but was postponed because of the war. Traditionally the face of this type coin bears a symbol denoting liberty.

GIVE OLD FLOORS A NEW LOOK WITH PAINT

What to do with old or neglected floors is often a question with homemakers. If this is your problem—have you considered painting them? Paint completely covers the wood and makes the floor look better than before. If you paint, use porch or deck paint—two or three coats of it. This finish is durable and easy to care for. It will become even more durable if you apply a thin coat of wax over the last coat of paint.

For daily cleaning of your painted floor—use either a soft bristled brush, a clean dry mop, or the floor brush nozzles of the cleaning tools which attach to an electric cleaner. When the floor is quite soiled, go over it with a clean mop wrung almost dry, out of clear warm water. Occasionally clean a painted floor with a mop wrung out of mild warm soap suds. Wash a small area, rinse with clear water, and wipe dry at once with a clean dry mop. Avoid letting water remain on the floor.

PLANT A FREEDOM GARDEN

Now is the time to plant a vegetable garden. The United States Secretary of Agriculture has set a goal of 20 million freedom gardens for our country this year. Vegetables play an important role in the nutritional well being so should be used extensively in the diet, and a vegetable garden can help the American people do this. The more garden grown this summer, the more food that will be released to send overseas for relief of the critical situation in the foreign countries.

Home gardeners, also, help keep the cost down on the food budget. The food dollar can go a great deal further if the homemaker is able to bring her vegetables in from the garden rather than purchasing them at the market. Strictly fresh vegetables are rich in vitamins and minerals and are more flavorful and colorful.

The home garden can supply vegetables for year-round use and one can plan accordingly when planting the garden. First of all, grow all the vegetables you will need for summer use. Plan also to grow vegetables that adapt themselves to various types of food preservation—freezing, canning, drying, or cold storage. Here again, there will be further aid in stretching the food dollar.

Fresh vegetables are rich sources of a variety of minerals and vitamins that are necessary for maintaining good health. Yellow vegetables are rich in vitamin A. Green vegetables, of which there are quite a variety that can be grown in a home garden, are rich in vitamin B. The red vegetables and tomatoes are one of the favorites in this group, are an excellent source of Vitamin C.

Proper use and preparation of fresh vegetables provide for a good diet and help maintain good health. Cut doctor bills and food bills by planting a freedom garden this year. This will also be a means of easing the food situation throughout the world.

Let's look at a Three-Legged Stool

THE TOP, as you see, is BUSINESS... and BUSINESS, any business, is simply the production of goods or services that people want, and the sale of those goods or services.

But to produce goods or services that people want, and to sell them, BUSINESS must have supports. It must have CUSTOMERS—who are willing to buy and pay for the goods or services produced. It must have EMPLOYEES—who know how to use the tools of production.

It must have STOCKHOLDERS—owners—who are willing to provide the money with which to buy the tools of production.

But it must also have MANAGEMENT... and without this to brace it and to divide the strain, the whole thing would collapse. The function of MANAGEMENT is as vital to each leg of the stool as it is to the top.

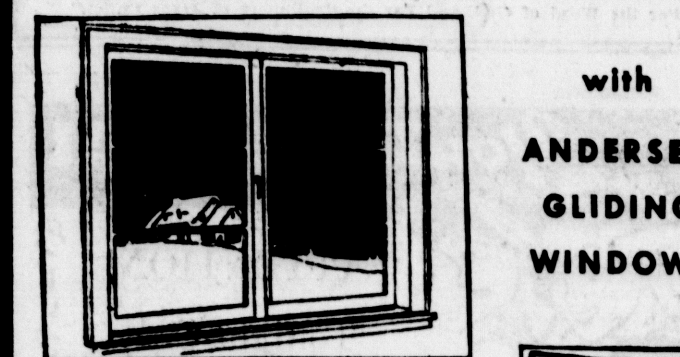

In the telephone business, MANAGEMENT is simply telephone employees at various stages of their careers. It is management that organizes, plans and directs the operations that provide the best possible telephone service at the lowest possible cost consistent with good treatment of employees and a fair return to the hundreds of thousands of men and women who have put part of their savings into Bell System stock.

Larger Sums Are Asked For State Cancer Research

HARRISBURG, May 1.—(INS)—The joint Senate-House Appropriations committee today was asked by a group of medical men to grant larger sums for cancer research in Pennsylvania during the 1949-51 biennium.

The General Assembly appropriated $250,000 for research during the present two-year fiscal period ending May 31, 1949, compared with $100,000 during 1947-48 when the state subsidized cancer control program was inaugurated.

Rep. Norman Wood (R) Lancaster, chairman, said the delegation of doctors, including deans of medical schools, was invited to make recommendations for improvement of the state's general health program, but dwelt solely on the cancer program.

Six Senior Girls Under Suspension For School Actions

NORTH BEND, Ore., May 1.—(INS)—Six senior girls at North Bend high school were under suspension today after keeping a 40-year-old "deskirting" tradition going in the face of official disapproval.

The girls were ordered to stay off the school grounds for two weeks.

They will be reinstated at the end of their suspension if they promise good behavior.

The Board of Education recently insisted on a halt to the 40-year-old custom of taking off the skirts of freshman girls and the pants of first year boys in the school halls during the noon hour.

Youth, Air Rifle Do Heavy Damage

PHILADELPHIA, May 1.—(INS)—A young boy with an air rifle and an inevitable attraction for plate glass windows has caused $2,400 worth of grief to a Philadelphia department store.

A watchman found two huge display windows shattered by BB shot yesterday. One piece of plate glass was valued at $1,200 and the other at $600.

Arrest Three
Officials of the John Wansmaker store immediately ordered replacements. As another $600 window was en route to the store, it also was shattered by BB shot.

Police arrested three 13-year-old boys as suspects. One of them reportedly admitted firing an air rifle, but said he "didn't mean to hit any glass."

Plead Not Guilty In Officer's Death

PHILADELPHIA, May 1.—(INS)—David Almeida and James F. Smith, Jr., both accused of participating in the slaying of a Philadelphia policeman, will go on trial Friday in Philadelphia.

Both pleaded not guilty yesterday shortly after their return to the Quaker City from New Orleans, where each was sentenced to 35 years in prison for a $114,000 bank robbery.

A third suspect, Edward Hough, has been sentenced to die in the electric chair next month.

The trio is accused of shooting to death Patrolman Cecil Ingling a few seconds after they held up a supermarket in north Philadelphia.

Former Socialist Candidate For President Heard

NEW WILMINGTON, May 1.—The debate between Norman Thomas, former socialist candidate for president and Merryl Rukseyer, financial writer for the Hearst papers was heard by an interested audience Thursday evening at Westminster College.

Using the theme "Would Socialism Benefit America?" Thomas disavowed any relationship between the type of socialism he advocated and the kind in operation in Russia or that Hitler installed in Germany under the name of national socialism. In favor of socialism, he pointed out the steps taken by the labor government in England blaming capitalism for driving England to the edges of ruin.

Rukseyer in upholding the high standard of living of the American workers, pointed with pride to the production record of this country during the war years. America should not trade her present way of living for a purely theoretical system pointed out by Thomas, Mr. Rukseyer showed in his rebuttal.

C. W. McKee of the Economic and Consumer Administration Department, of which he presided over the debate, presiding during the evening. Each man was given 20 minutes to state his side of the question, with 15 minutes allowed for each to offer rebuttal.

New Trial Award By Judge Lamoree

Suit Against William M. Clark Company Ordered To Be Tried Again

OTHER EVENTS IN COURT HOUSE

In an opinion and order handed down Friday, a new trial is granted in the case of Martin D. O'Connell against the William M. Clark Co. A previous trial had awarded O'Connell $5,000.

The case arose out of an alleged oral contract between the litigants in which O'Connell was to be given a share of the profits out of a contract given the defendant company. The contract was for the installation of plumbing in the plant of the Keystone Ordnance Company built by the Fraser-Brace Company in Crawford County.

The plaintiff alleged he had made an oral agreement with the defendant company to get them a contract for which he was to receive a percentage of the profits. In the trial the jury awarded him $5,000.

In the opinion Judge Lamoree said the court had erred in certain parts of the charge and a new trial is ordered.

He received sixty days in jail for the latter two offenses but these run concurrently with the first sentence.

Andrew Masters was fined $100 and costs and thirty days in the county jail for drunken driving. Out in three days if the fine and costs are paid.

William Collier, receiving stolen goods was fined $100 and costs and placed on probation for one year.

Highway Department Begins State Wide Survey Of Traffic

Traffic Will Be Counted In Lawrence County Sometime During Next Two Years

HARRISBURG, May 1.—Pennsylvania Department of Highways has begun its first state wide traffic survey in ten years with the concerted effort to require two years to complete.

Every county in the state will be included in the count which will cover approximately 31,000 miles of highway in the rural areas and 3,000 miles of state routes extending into urban areas. All improved surface highways will be included.

Arrangements have been made to complete six districts of the state during the first year and the remainder in the second year. Officials of the department say that there will be no stopping of traffic during the survey but information will be recorded on 105 portable machines which record traffic volumes hourly.

During the period, continuous counts will be provided by the department's permanently located

"electric eye" recorders. These are already in operation throughout the state on major traffic routes and other roads. Four major control stations will be established in each of the 12 districts into which the department has been divided for the traffic survey.

Lawrence County Department of Highways has not informed as yet when the count will begin here. The workmen or engineers are sent out from the Harrisburg or district offices and work separately from the county departments.

Jones And Laughlin Decreases Prices

PITTSBURGH, May 1.—INS.—Jones and Laughlin Steel Corporation followed the lead of "Big Steel" today by announcing a decrease in steel prices amounting to $3,500,000 yearly.

A. J. Hazlett, sales vice president, said the price slash was J & L's "contribution to the effort to halt the spiral of inflation." The new prices will be sent to the company's district offices within a few days, he added. No indication was given as to what steel products would be cut.

Wins Divorce And Sympathy Of Court

PHILADELPHIA, May 1.—INS.—

A coast guardsman who spent 32 days on a life raft during the war held a divorce recommendation today after he testified his wife deserted him because he spent V-J day celebrating with fellow survivors of the sea accident.

Charles Hook, 26, of Camden told the court that his wife, Irma, insisted on going out with him on the evening of Aug. 15, 1945.

He said that instead, he went out with two buddies who also were torpedoed off the coast of Haiti in 1943. Hook pointed out that only four of 14 men on his life raft survived.

He told the court that when he returned that evening, his wife had disappeared and he had not seen her since. Her father, James P. Stevenson, testified on behalf of Hook.

Only Few Weeks Remain To Crown Marbles Champs

City and county public schools today were reminded by the Optimist club that only a few weeks remain for them to run off their marble-shooting championships in order to crown individual winners and ready them for the finals May 27 at Ben Franklin high.

So far the entries have been slow coming in and the club wishes each school to have its champion (15 years of age or younger) for the county tournament. The winner will be eligible to compete in the national play-offs at Wildwood, N. J., a week's vacation at one of the nation's finest resort cities, all expenses paid.

"NEW LOOK" TO PRISON

ALTOONA, Pa., May 1.—INS.—The "new look" has been added to the Blair county prison at Hollidaysburg, according to Warden John E. Harvey.

The drab buff walls and ceilings were painted a brighter buff and each cell given a coat of gray. Renovation of the cell blocks was authorized several weeks ago by Blair county commissioners. It is one of the oldest prisons in central Pennsylvania.

Bessemer High Has Best Brass Sextet At State Contests

Victorious High School Musicians
Return With State Honors
From Oil City Meet

A jubilant Bessemer high school brass sextet has returned to Lawrence county from Oil City bringing with them state honors, having been judged the best brass sextet in the state of Pennsylvania. At the competition in which they participated Friday, state judges gave the young men a rating of "superior" as they played against many of the top notch instrumentalists in the state.

The victory is more outstanding in the fact that any size school in the state was eligible to enter the contest following the district meets in which they won the right to appear at Oil City. Bessemer High has an enrollment of 172 while McKeesport, which took an excellent rating in this particular event, has an enrollment of 3,000 pupils.

The Bessemer sextet is composed of Ray Gennaro, trumpet; Jack Gabert, trumpet; Charles Stanley, trombone; Primo Domini, bass horn. The sextet is supervised by Joseph Martin, director of music at Bessemer high school.

Dean Cracraft of the school won an excellent rating in the E flat alto saxophone competition at Oil City, while Angelina Maceri, who won the right from the district contest to appear at the state meet, placed eighth at Oil City as she played on the B flat tenor saxophone.

Accompanying the Bessemer musicians to the state meet were Joseph Martin and Miss Emily Bingham of the high school faculty.

In one other competition at Oil City, William Barbe of the New Wilmington high school took an excellent rating in the tenor solo event. He tied with two other competitors in the contest.

RETURNED TO WASHINGTON
Karl Orkis, 14, who fled a Washington county detention home, stole an auto at Houston, and who was arrested by city police here, was returned by state police to the detention home yesterday. The car was recovered here.

Former Resident Helps To Defeat Italian Communists

Anthony DeNuccio, Now Of Cincinnati, O., Goes To Italy To Help In Italy's Crisis

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Gaspare of 105 West Cherry street received word that their cousin, Anthony DeNuccio of Cincinnati, O., and former seventh ward resident, who is now in Italy, was successful in his attempt to convert 300 to 400 Italians from voting for the Communist regime.

According to a dispatch received here, Mrs. DeNuccio and daughter Carmen of Cincinnati, O., induced Mr. DeNuccio to return to Italy at the end of February and to try to persuade his many Italian friends and relatives to vote for the Christian Democrats instead of the Popular Front, the latter being connected with Communists.

Mr. DeNuccio did so, and while there also visited his sister and her family in Riardo. He made many speeches in the plaza and insisted that the best way to have a free Italy would be the defeat of the Communists. In his brief stay, he managed to change the minds of about 400 persons and in that way helped to defeat the Communists.

"Italy has won the big victory of her life," he has written here. The town then celebrated joyfully its great victory.

Mr. DeNuccio hopes for an audience with Holiness the Pope and with Premier Alcide de Gasperi before returning to this country.

Relatives and friends of the pupils at Mahoning School crowded the auditorium of the school, on Thursday evening, to witness the presentation by pupils of 6, 7, 8, and 9 of the Operetta entitled, "Tom-Tit-Tat". There have been requests for a repeat performance. The production was under the direction of Mrs. Elizabeth Heikinen, vocal music teacher of the junior high classes.

The chief characters in the operetta were, "King", Ted Parks; "Rosabelle, the Queen", by Catherine Orlando; "The Gnome", by Arthur Micozzi; "Village Girls", "Sarah", by Sally Conti; "Bess", by Phyllis West.

Five selections "America The Beautiful", "To Him From Whom All Blessings Flow", "The Mill Wheel", and two from musical, "Oklahoma" were given by Junior high chorus. Two violin solos by William Rotunno, three accordion solos by John Pappasiani. The band, conducted by Mrs. Gwladys Thomas Pollard, gave a number of intermittent selections.

Mrs. Heikinen expresses appreciation to the teachers and all others who so graciously helped in the presentation.

Harmony Line Drivers Reject Wage Proposal

PITTSBURGH, May 1.—(INS)—Drivers of the Harmony Short Line today rejected a compromise wage increase offer, a spokesman for the AFL Motor Coach Employees, division 1067, said.

The new wage offer was submitted to a membership vote after a threatened strike last midnight was postponed. While the compromise offer was not disclosed, the union had been asking 27 cents hourly wage boost and changes in working conditions.

No strike date was immediately set pending international union approval for a walkout.

Grays Blank Chiefs Under Arcs, 8-0

SMITH'S HURLING SILENCES LOCALS, SIX ERRORS HURT

Braving a rather chilly evening, 1,500 New Castle fans turned out at P. J. Flaherty Field last evening for the opening of the 1948 baseball season, and saw the "Chiefs" of the Mid-Atlantic league run into a powerful Homestead Grays edition, the locals being on the losing end 8 to 0.

Lacking in practice under the lights, the Chiefs made several bobbles in the early innings that hurt the fine five innings that Bill Zuraw pitched, but tightened up in the latter innings and gave Roger Vaillancourt better support. The Chiefs are going to be all right with a little more experience at Flaherty Field.

Tomorrow afternoon the Chiefs will play the Watertown N. Y. team and will look better. Watertown is a Class C team, the same as New Castle.

Smith Well Pleased
George "Pappy" Smith, general manager was gratified at the turnout. The fans got a big kick out of the Grays, who had won 17 and lost but 3 up until last night, making it 18 wins for the season to date.

The Grays scored two runs in the first inning on two hits, and two errors, Heiler and Muldoon having errors for the Chiefs. Zuraw fanned the last two batters in the opening inning. Two more hits for the Grays in the second inning by Marquez and Sosa failed to produce a run.

Singles by Easter, Bruce, and Sosa, and topped off with a double by Wee Willie Smith, the pitcher, gave the Grays three more runs in the third inning and then went without a run until the top of the ninth when they batted in three more on three hits and an error by Johnny Maguska, a local boy.

Smith Inevitable
The Chiefs found right-hander Smith hard to solve, and could not get more than one hit in any inning. Maguska and Muldoon led the locals at the plate with two each. Two sparkling double plays cut off the Chiefs' chances to get around the bases.

Not Discouraged
The Chiefs hit the ball hard at times. Manager Bob Crow sending the Grays centerfielder to the fence twice to snag long hit balls. The Grays as usual had a great out as well as infield.

Fans from being discouraged
The Chiefs have promised to give Watertown a battle Sunday and are hoping to notch their first win, in the beautiful P. J. Flaherty Field. "We just need a little more time to get in shape," was the way Manager Crow put it.

"We didn't do badly, considering we didn't get a chance to use Flaherty Field for practice, last night being the first time that we have been on the field, which was torn up and new dirt placed on the base paths."

Mahoney Looks Good
Wait Mahoney sparked at first base, on several nice plays, and Roger Vaillancourt the left-hander who finished the game fielded his position very well. The Chiefs regular third-sacker, Roy Maud, is still nursing an injured wrist, and will make a big difference in the inner defense when ready for action. Hill, an outfielder, has a sore angle and hopes to see action soon.

The Chiefs following the Watertown game Sunday, will go to New Kensington Monday for a game, and will play the Grays again next Wednesday at P. J. Flaherty Field. The first game in the Mid-Atlantic league will be with the Butler Yankees here Friday, May 7th.

Game time Sunday is 2:30 o'clock. The same prices as prevailed last night will hold good for Sunday. Box Seats, $1.25; general admission, 75 cents (no reserved seats) and children under 12 for 25 cents. General Manager Smith announced.

Five Sunday Games Open 1948 County League Slate

The Lawrence County Baseball league will be the first loop to open its 1948 season when all ten teams swing into action Sunday afternoon in inaugurations.

"We have one of the best lineups of teams in the history of the circuit," said Alec Samuels, prexy of the circuit, "and the fans will see faster ball, played by better staffed teams. We are looking forward to a very successful campaign."

The Ellwood Moose will be the defending champions, having won the 1947 flag. The loon kingpins will again be managed by Dick Friedhoff with Grundy Volpe as assistant.

The Moose open at the Ewing Park field against their ancient rivals, the V. F. W., and a large crowd is looked for since league ball draws well in the Tube City.

Other games will find the Wampum Victory club (Legion in 1947) at home against New Galilee's.

COUNTY LEAGUE GAMES TOMORROW
Ellwood V.F.W. at Ellwood Moose.
St. Lucy at Hillsville.
New Galilee at Wampum.
Johnson Bronze at Edenburg.
Koppel at Bessemer.

"Hot Tops" Johnson Bronze drawing a revitalized Edenburg club at the Tigers' field, Koppel going to Bessemer, and St. Lucy meeting Hillsville.

The fans will be watching the antics of the "Jaybees" this year, the local plant being a new entry into the league, and reported to have a strong club. Koppel is also a new unit. These two teams have replaced Castlewood and Wayne A. C., who dropped out.

All games tomorrow will get underway at 2 p. m. DST.

Talent hunts went on throughout the winter months and most of the club have injected new playing strength into their teams. Some promising youngsters have been added to the rosters to take their places with the standby performers of the circuit. Enthusiasm is running high for a slam-bang season, and most of the managers agree that it will be a dog-fight right down to August 15 for the honors.

Watertown Plays Here On Sunday
General Manager Smith Books Strong Border League Team For Chiefs, 2:30 Start

George "Pappy" Smith, general manager of the New Castle Chiefs announced today that the strong Watertown, N. Y. team of the Class "C" Border league will play the Chiefs Sunday at P. J. Flaherty Field at 2:30 o'clock.

Bill Zuraw, Ray Vincette, Adin Hoch and Smith have played on the Watertown team, the first three being members last year. Art Frantz, Frank Wagner, and Jim Devlin, now with Watertown, played at Niagara Falls last year. Frantz is a shortstop, Wagner a pitcher and Devlin a catcher.

Watertown finished second in the Border league last year, Smith reported.

Fans will see a greatly improved Flaherty Field this year. The opening last night with the Grays drew a large crowd. "Pappy" Smith pitched for Watertown two years ago. Busco and Vincette will pitch Sunday for the Chiefs it was indicated.

FIVE COUNTY BOXERS APPEAR ON MAY 5 CARD
When fans trot into the Arena next Wednesday night to see amateur exchange hits and misses, they'll see five Lawrence county hopefuls among the 16 pairings in eight bouts. It has been a year since so many county boys were displayed in pugilistic action, hence there'll be hometown "rooting" for them.

The county boys who will fight follow:
Ronnie Straw, Ellwood City, vs Jole Vitale, New Castle, 135.
Eddie Jones, Youngstown, vs Mike Gisoni, Ellwood City, 128.
Augie Martinez, Youngstown, vs Johnny Parrella, New Castle, 175.
Jimmy Trool, Youngstown, vs Al Leasure, New Castle, 147.

Excepting for Leasure it will be the inaugural for the county boys. However, every one of them is hopeful of being returned winner of a three-round battle, if not by a knockout, then by a decision.

Opposes Mexican
Parrella battles Martinez, who is a Mexican. They are heavy enough to pound each other viciously. Mike Gisoni likes to fight, and in every bout shows it. Jones expects to give him a good fight.

The main bout will find Bob Baker, Pittsburgh Golden Glove heavyweight king, opposed to Bob Golden, Akron's GG champion. Baker lost out in the amateur finals in Madison Square Garden. Golden lost out in the Cleveland finals. This looks like a mighty fine scrap.

Howie Thornton, 175, battles Frankie Lavarro, a light-heavyweight of Akron, in the next to last fight while Cecil Johnson, Pittsburgh, boxes Eddie Brennan, Akron, at 135 and Horace Darby, Pittsburgh, boxes Jimmy Masters, Akron, at 142.

All of the boys are in training for the Jefferson Athletic club's fracas.

100,000 To Witness "Run For The Roses"

By LAWTON CARVER

LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 1.—A hundred thousand spectators clogged traffic today in their annual hegira to that most hallowed shrine of horse flesh, Churchill Downs with the Kentucky Derby attached.

On their return journey this evening they will bear with them the answer to the great turf question of recent times:

"Which is the better horse, Citation or Coaltown?"

The four others in the mile and a quarter race—My Request, Escadru, Billings and Grandpere—are virtually ignored like intruders who should have stayed home in somebody's pasture.

That the two Kentucky-bred Bull Lea, three-year-old colts running as Calumet Farms entry can't be beaten already is as well-established as mint juleps down in the Kentucky horse country.

Come mud or shine, one or the other of them must race under the wire first and add the winners end of $83,400 to the already sizeable bankroll of Warren Wright, master of Calumet.

That is what all their fellow-Kentuckians say whenever and wherever you encounter them.

Only Win Bets
Track officials make this virtually unanimous by limiting today's betting strictly to win on the six-horse field—and five betting interest. Because of the entry, place and show were formally ruled out.

General Manager Sweeney and over-all-head Col. Winn, who at 36 is still smart enough to know a dollar when he sees one, barred all but win betting in an unprecedented derby development late yesterday.

This was decided upon to keep a probable minus pool to a minimum on a $2.20 payoff for Citation or Coaltown victory.

Pirates Hottest Club In National Loop Race

By LES CONKLIN

(International News Service Sports Editor)

NEW YORK, May 1.—INS.—The National league race to date has resembled a Kentucky Derby in that one team after another has been making a run for the lead, then falling back.

Latest club to stage a drive is Pittsburgh, of all teams.

Yankets to pilot the Bucs, had announced he merely was going to build for the future this year. But Billy is making things rough for rival managers right now, let alone the future.

Meyer found a fountain of youth somewhere and had two pitchers of ancient vintage, Elmer Riddle and Rip Sewell, bathe in it, and also has extracted two winning games from them.

On top of this, Meyer has three of the league's leading hitters to date in Frank Gustine, Wally Pinder and Dixie Walker, and Ralph Kiner is starting to belt the ball.

Today the surprising Smoketown boys are only half a game behind the New York Giants, slipping pacesetters in the senior circuit.

Yesterday the Bucs walloped the faltering Chicago Cubs, 10 to 4. The race is so close that only 2½ games separate the last-place Cubs from the leading Giants, who were trounced 7 to 2 by the Braves.

Bob Elliott, Tommy Holmes and Jeff Heath homered for the Braves, who thus smacked as many homers in one game as they had clouted in their previous 11 starts.

The Braves, with Elliott and Holmes back in the lineup and knocking the cover off the ball along with Bill Salkeld and Alvin Dark, finally are looking the part of a red-hot pennant contender, especially after Johnny Sain held the Giants to five hits.

Cards Make Jump
The St. Louis Cardinals jumped all the way from seventh place into a triple tie for third by defeating the Cincinnati Reds, 13 to 7. Joe Garagiola's grand-slam homer broke a tie in the seventh inning, and Stan Musial also produced a powerful aid for the winners with five hits including a homer.

Rookie Steve Souchock hit two homers and Johnny Lindell and Billy Johnson got one apiece as the New York Yankees trounced the Boston Red Sox, 6 to 0. Big Chief Alie Reynolds, who held the Sox to six hits and racked up his third straight win of the year, now has beaten the Bostonians 11 times out of 13 during his major league career.

The revered ditty entitled "There's No Place Like Home" certainly cannot be the theme song of the Detroit Tigers, who dropped their fifth consecutive start on their own diamond when they lost to the Chicago White Sox again, 5 to 4. Prince Hal Newhouser took the rap.

Rain Is Winner
Cleveland and the St. Louis Browns were washed out. In night games, Brooklyn tied the Cardinals and Reds for third place in the

Nothing like this has ever happened before in all the years since 1908 when the mutuels first came to Kentucky, but it generally was agreed that nothing has happened like Citation and Coaltown either.

They were one to five in the morning line, certain to be one to 10 at post time and equally certain, it seems, to all but run the others off the track as follows:

W. L. Brann's Escadru, to be ridden by Arnold Kirkland; Walmar Farms Billings, Mel Peterson, up; Grandpere, with Johnny Gilbert in the saddle; and My Request, Doug Dodson up.

Citation, trained by the seemingly incomparable Ben Jones and piloted by Eddie Arcaro, the best of modern riders, is the horse that caused the place and show betting to be called off.

Coaltown, his running mate, to be ridden by Newbold Leroy Piercen, the jockey with a bankers name, is trained by the same white-hatted man who helped to make the Calumet silks odds on.

Deweys-Civics Tangle Sunday

Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock the Dewey A. C. will play the Union Civics an exhibition game at Deshon Annex Field, it was announced. All Union Civics and Dewey players are to be prompt in reporting. All players on both teams under contract are asked to show up.

Universals Will Play Game Sunday
The Universal Pottery will play the Frank's Grille team at George Washington field at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon, it was announced. The Universal team has met the Chiefs twice and broken even. The Potters are going to make a determined race for the city league flag this year, with a well balanced team.

The Brooklyn, weak with the willow previously, have tallied 28 runs in their last two starts.

Billy Cox, Brooklyn third baseman who went A.W.O.L. because he didn't want to play second base, returned to the fold and promptly was stationed at shortstop, making him versatile if nothing else.

WILL HAVE WORKOUT
The VFW Post 522 baseball team will stage a meeting and workout Sunday at 2:30 o'clock, with all members asked to meet at the club house on Grant street.

HERE AND THERE IN SPORTS' LAND

ONCE upon a time, and that period was before age caught up with him, Hugh Hannon, the West Sider, slung a pair of clever foot in back and wing, soft shoe or upon sanded floor, and also could pleasingly vocalize ballads which appeared the assembly's yearning for theatricals, be it minstrelsy, vaudeville, or just a party at someone's house. While song and dance was his first love, he was a boxer, and it might be said, a shrewd observer of things pugilistic, hence it was no more than natural several days ago for Hugh to deal with fiction and remark that, having seen recent photos of Joe Louis "I doubt if he can get in 'shape' for Jersey Joe (Walcott)." Meeting Hugh yesterday here & there engaged him in hit and miss parlay and he reiterated his opinion, then inquired: "Do you know that a colored boxer can't 'take it' in the stomach?" Without awaiting a reply, he continued: "When Terry McGovern fought George Dixon, George couldn't take it. When Joe Gans fought Batling Nelson, Gans couldn't take it. Kid Lavigne knocked out Joe Walcott in their second fight. Why I remember the time when the late Joe Capitola (who died in Florida a year or more ago) fought King Christian in the Old Laundry here. Joe started slow, but caught up to King, began pummeling his stomach, and every time Capitola would land, Christian would draw his knees almost high enough to protect his stomach." Hannon next pointed out that right hand punches to Louis' jaw has had him down in several fights, and despite Walcott being older than Louis, believes Walcott is in better condition right now, and will be more in the 'pink' come June when they fight. Just before Hugh ambled on his way, he said: "You fellows are too young to recall Bob Fitzsimmons first fight in this country. Well, he landed from Australia and was matched to fight Bo (or Bull) McCarthy, a young, husky, tough fellow in San Francisco. Fitzsimmons knocked him out. That was his start in this country, Hannon reported and concluded that in his 'book' Jack Dempsey was the 'berries' as a socker. "Age beat Dempsey. In Chicago, he had the old flame, but his legs were tired and the zip was gone from his punches, else Tunney would never have got up," he concluded.

Tobey (Clancy) Logan, employee of the state highway department, reports seeing a fisherman catch six trout within a short time near the Heinz camp bridge in the Slippery Rock several days ago. "He wasn't a fish hunter either," Tobey reported, stating that the fisherman threw back all of the fish unless they were extra big. He espied another fisherman with all sorts of tackle, and attired in the latest fishing togs. "He didn't have a trout in his creel," Logan said. "You've gotta lot of tackle, Mister," Logan said to him. "Yes, plenty of it, but it is worth the recreation I get out of fishing," the man replied. By booking New Castle and Lawrence County boxers on the May 5 Arena card, Matchmaker Tommy Leach added to its complexion, because fans like to see local boxers in action. The Kentucky Derby is being run today and will be over within a few hours after The News appears.
